NUMBER 11)

- COMMENDATION OF UNIT -

Under the provisions of Section IV, Circular Number 333, War Department, 1943, the following-named organization is commended:

THE PROVISIONAL PLATOON, 349th Infantry, is commended for outstanding devotion to duty and meritorious conduct, during the period 7 March 44 to 23 March 44. The Provisional Platoon, consisting of fifty-eight (58) enlisted men and one (1) Officer, was hurriedly organized to occupy an important front-line position in the Lower Garigliano Sector, Italy, thereby closing a gap hitherto existing between two companies of the regiment. The personnel comprising this platoon were selected from members of the rear echelon and consisted of cooks, armor-artificers, drivers and various other men performing non-combatant duties. These men, although part of an actively functioning Infantry Regiment, had been performing rear echelon duties for an extended period of time. In order to attain a degree of proficiency equal to that of the regularly assigned infantryman, the men worked conscientiously and with unswerving devotion to duty. During the entire length of time the Provisional Platoon occupied this front-line sector, they functioned and performed duties similar to those of a rifle platoon.

When a patrol from Company F, * * *, encountered and suffered severe casualties in an enemy mine field, these soldiers at risk of their lives went forward in full view of German riflemen only one hundred fifty yards distance to evacuate their wounded comrades. Disregarding the danger of injury in entering the German mine field, S/Sgt Cargill, Pfc King, Jr and Pvt Hernandez succeeded in evacuating their wounded comrades to safety and medical aid. Their courageous action to succor the wounded in the face of mortal danger to themselves is in keeping with the finest traditions of the American Soldier and is a source of pride in them by all members of this command.

In military operations against an enemy of the United States * * * * *, in the vicinity of * *, ITALY, on 6 March 1944. When a friendly Outpost had been demolished by a direct hit from enemy artillery, these soldiers moved forward to the Outpost while heavy concentrations of German shells were still falling on the position. Hearing cries of the wounded coming from under the ruins, Pfc Champagne began clearing away rocks and debris, while T/Sgt Dzieman under enemy fire and without regard to personal safety, worked his way across a valley to secure aid men and litter bearers. In the meantime,Pfc Champagne under an enemy artillery barrage, in rain and darkness and with disregard for his own life, continued removing the wreckage until help arrived and the dead soldiers had been recovered and two wounded men were evacuated from the ruins and taken to the aid station. T/Sgt Dzieman and Pfc Champagne's outstanding devotion to duty, their courageous action and selfless exposure in the face of grave danger to aid the wounded is in keeping with the highest traditions of the military service.

PFC JOSEPH ZAMPICENIE 31115845 - Entered Service from Rutland, Vermont

In military operations against an enemy of the United States * * * in the yicinity of * * *, ITALY, on 27 May 1944. The 2nd Battalion * * * Infantry was making its way through German territory to attack across the * * * River. Pfc Joseph Zampicenie, 31115845, Company G * * * Infantry, serving as a runner at Battalion Headquarters, acted as guide for the Battalion. Constantly subject to enemy fire, he led the Battalion for twenty-four hours without rest or relief, during daylight and darkness through enemy occupied mountainous terrain. Pfc Zampicenie tirelessly secured directions from Italian natives of the region. He frequently made reconnaissance alone in darkness going forward of all friendly troops, to find the way. Having led his Battalion to the * * * River, Pfc Zampicenie went out with an Italian guide and found a crossing. His devotion to his task, his unceasing efforts and ingenuity made it possible for his Battalion to cross the * * * River, and seize enemy positions, killing ten and capturing seventeen Germans. Pfc Zampiconie's vigor and initiative, his untiring efforts are a source of gratification to all members of the command.

In military operations against an enemy of the United States , in the vicinity of , Italy, from 14 May 1944 to 16 May 1944. Laying wire from  across * , * * , Hills * ,* ,and * these men were a contributing factor to the successful advance of their Battalion. Constantly exposed to enemy artillery and small arms fire, without sleep or food they laid wire by hand over terrain so inaccessible that at times they had to wrap the wire around their bodies to leave hands free for climbing. Sustaining two casualties from shrapnel and one from an exploding mine, they nevertheless continued devotedly and in the face of seemingly unsurmountable obstacles to make possible efficient communication with their organization. The vital service rendered by these loyal and corageous men has won the esteem of their comrades and represents the highest traditions of the Armed Forces.

PVT GEORGE VIEGAS 31421216 - Entered Service from New Bedford, Mass.

In military operations against an enemy of the United States * * *, in the vicinity of * * * *, Italy, on 14 July 1944. When a patrol of which he was a member was forced to withdraw in the fire of a German machine gun, one of the soldiers who was wounded was left behind in ground occupied by the enemy. Pvt VIEGAS voluntarily left a position of safety and returned through morter and machine gun fire to bring in his wounded comrade. Fearing to move the man who was severely injured, Pvt VIEGAS returned to the company to get an aid man but there being other casualties the aid man was occupied and Pvt VIEGAS secured a tube of morphine and again at risk to his life went out to where the injured soldier lay. Administering the morphine he carried the injured soldier to a position of safety and dug a slit trench for protection of the casualty until he could be evacuated. His selfless concern for the wounded soldier and the courage displayed in the hostile fire at risk to his life are a credit to Pvt VIEGAS and to the Military Service.

2. Under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-55, the following named enlisted man of Company "I" * * * Infantry, is commended for heroic and meritorious action beyond the ordinary in the action described below:

PFC MILLARD F BOWEN, JR 15035970 - Entered Service from Port Chester, N.Y.
(Vicinity: Ghizzano, Italy)

In military operations against an enemy of the United States * * *, in the vicinity of * * * *, Italy, on 12 July 1944. Pfc BOWEN was second in command of a patrol of Company "I" with the mission of making contact with friendly troops 4000 yards distant on our flank before the third battalion continued its push. When the Officer leading the patrol stepped on an anti-personnel mine blowing off one foot, Pfc BOWEN unhesitatingly took command of the situation, immediately rendering first aid and ordered the rest of the patrol to evacuate the wounded Officer to the battalion aid station. Then, without regard for his own safety, heedless of artillery shells, Pfc BOWEN continued the mission alone for over two miles through hilly terrain, infested with numerous mine fields and made contact with our troops. Securing this vital information, this heroic soldier returned through the same rugged terrain and completed his mission. The heroic action of Pfc BOWEN saved the life of the wounded Officer and his initiative in completing his hazardous mission enabled the battalion to proceed to its next objective.

VOLTERRA TO PALAIA, ITALY

1. Under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-55, the following named enlisted men of Cannon Company, * * * Infantry, are commended for heroic and meritorious service beyond the ordinary in the action described below:

PFC TIMOTHY L HINES 20538573 Entered military service from Greentown, Indiana
PVT DOUGLAS W MILLER 36530009 Entered military service from Detroit, Mich.

In military operations against an enemy of the United States, from * * * * * * to * * * * *, Italy, during the period of 8 July to 18 July 1944. These heroic soldiers, members of the forward observer liaison radio section, moved through mountainous terrain infested with numerous Teller and box mines, and although frequently exposed to sustained artillery, machine gun and small arms fire, they remained with their forward observer enabling the supported unit to receive invaluable fire support. Many nights while the troops were halted for brief periods of rest, these soldiers worked without sleep, operating their radios, calling for harassing fires. While in the performance of their duties, Pvt MILLER suffered the loss of his right foot when he stepped on a box mine, and Pfc HINES was wounded by shell fragments. The high order of courage and initiative displayed by Pfc HINES and Pvt MILLER reflect great credit upon themselves and is in keeping with the finest traditions of the Armed Forces.

VOLTERRA TO SAN MINIATO, ITALY

2. Under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-55, the following named enlisted man of Cannon Company * * * Infantry, is commended for heroic and meritorious service beyond the ordinary in the action described below:

T/SGT FRITHJOF N CARLSEN 32409510 Entered military service from Staten Island, N.Y.

On duty with Cannon Company during the advance of the * * * Infantry Regiment from * * * * * to * * * * *, Italy, during the period of 5 July to 27 July 1944, the above named non-commissioned officer displayed exemplary efficiency and a high degree of excellence in the discharge of duties and responsibilities beyond those commensurate with his grade. While the officers who normally commanded the batteries were forward to maintain close liaison and furnish direct cannon support to the Infantry troops, T/Sgt CARLSEN was placed in charge of a battery of cannons. The control and firing of the battery entirely in his hands, he assumed many of the normal duties and responsibilities of Officers, discharging them with marked ability and enthusiasm. His untiring efforts and diligence throughout the drive were an example to the other men and his performance reflects great credit upon the United States Army.

In military operations against an enemy of the United States.

During the early stages of the 14 May offensive these men played a vital role in the operations of their battalion. Artillery and mortar fire of great intensity failed to deter them from fulfilling their mission of providing and maintaining constant communication between the various units. On 13 July one of the wire jeeps was wrecked by a mine, killing the driver and seriously injuring the communications Officer. Undaunted, the section kept doggedly on, laying wire by hand although subjected to concentrated enemy artillery and mortar fire. The line was maintained throughout the day and proved invaluable in the evacuation of casualties, resupply of ammunition and reorganization of the battalion to press the attack. Again, during the fighting in the vicinity of * * * * * * *, Italy, the section faced difficulty and hazard unflinchingly. Without waiting for darkness, the wire jeeps were driven over a road plainly in view of the enemy until, passing through the town, enemy artillery shells crashed in their midst, wounding five of the section, including the wire chief and head lineman. The remaining wire men pushed forward, carrying their improved load by hand, to establish and maintain the vital communication line.

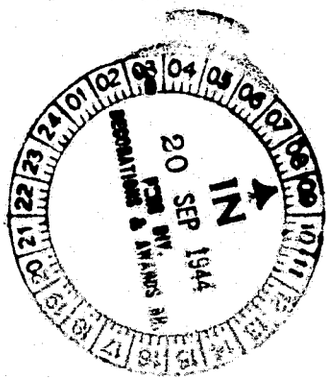

Later when the battalion advanced north of * * * * * * *, taking successive objectives in a sustained drive, the section laid wire through an unswept minefield. Though covering a distance greater than normal, the line was maintained for two days and was in constant use for administrative purposes and for directing fire on enemy positions. Initially it was used by both the 2nd and 3rd battalions, the forward Regimental Command group and the Regimental observation post. Despite the loss of their Officer, section chief and trained wire men, the section continued under trying conditions and in the face of grave danger to maintain efficient wire communication. Untiring effort, undaunted courage and disregard for personal safety, won for these men the highest esteem of their comrades and their achievement is exemplary of the finest traditions of the United States Army.

CITATION

Under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-55, the following named enlisted man of Company "L", * * * Infantry, is commended for meritorious service beyond the ordinary in the acts described below:

T/5 DOMINICK N CAVIARANO 32306613 Entered Military service from Jersey City, N.J.

At * * * * *, Italy prior to the launching of the 11 May offensive, this soldier achieved outstanding success in providing hot meals to troops in combat for a period of five weeks. In his capacity of 2nd cook, T/5 CAVIARANO was able on his own initiative through ingenuity to displace forward enough kitchen equipment and to obtain sufficient rations from various sources to provide the men of the company with hot meals which frequently included, hotcakes, fresh eggs and chicken. He volunteered to attempt what was considered an operation too risky if not wholly impossible and became the first cook of the regiment serving hot food to front line troops. Not content with fulfilling the need for bare necessities, T/5 CAVIARANO energetically utilized every minute of his time not required in the kitchen in improving conditions for his men. He improvised a mess hall in a partially wrecked building and equipped it with furnishings providing the atmosphere of a day room, seeing to it that magazines, stationery and cigarettes were constantly available to the men during off-duty hours. He performed numerous small but greatly appreciated services for the men whose activities were necessarily limited, wrapping and mailing packages, writing letters, and handing personal items to the soldiers of his company. A further contribution to the welfare of the men of Company "L" was the erection of a shower unit which he supervised, salvaging a 100 gallon oil drum and maintaining a hot water supply, providing baths for as many as thirty men per day. Through his initiative and unselfish devotion to his comrades, T/5 CAVIARANO contributed greatly to the morale of his company and his actions reflect credit on the Military Service.
