ing himself and his superior officers that previously prepared plans were carried out in detail. Major BEICHER'S superior qualities of sound judgement contributed materially to the successful accomplishment of the mission of the  Infantry. Officer's home town: La Grange, Texas.

LOUIS R. BUCKNER, First Lieutenant, 01285374, Infantry, for meritorious service in direct support of combat operations for the period  1944. First Lieutenant LOUIS R. BUCKNER, 01285374, Communications Officer,  Battalion,  Infantry, was charged with replacing communications of the  Battalion,  Infantry Brigade,  Division (British), with communications of the  Battalion,  Infantry, in the vicinity of Tremmenuoli, Italy. A hazardous situation existed in that the enemy was in possession of dominating terrain features and had excellent observation, both from the front and from the right flank. With utter disregard for his own personal safety, First Lieutenant BUCKNER supervised the entire installation of all wire communications from the battalion to the companies and to the platoons, and although considerable of the communications were located on the forward slope of the position, he continued to supervise constantly the maintenance of all communications. Personal fatigue was ignored in that aside from his regular duties, he frequently made himself available to any officer on the staff as a substitute. First Lieutenant BUCKNER'S intrepidity and efficacious manner contributed immeasurably to the accomplishment of the mission of the  Battalion,  Infantry. Officer's home town: Shavannah, Georgia.

2. Pursuant to authority contained in Paragraph 5, ar Department Circular 269, dated 27 October 1943, the following named officers, having displayed exemplary conduct in action against the enemy are hereby awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge:

NUMBER 3)

1. Under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-55, and Paragraph 5 War Department Circular 269, dated 27 October 1943, the following named officer is awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge and is commended for his outstanding performance in action as described below:

MILLARD C. DAVIS, Captain, 01285391, Infantry, for exceptionally meritorious service in direct support of combat operations, near * Italy, from * to * 1944. As Communication Officer, * Infantry, Captain MILLARD C. DAVIS, 01285391, was charged with replacing the * Infantry Brigade, * Division (British) communications with * Infantry communications prior and during the actual relief. Although Captain DAVIS had inexperienced personnel in his section, he directed them in a cool and efficient manner which was an inspiration to all enlisted men in his section. With utter disregard for his own personal safety, he maintained a constant vigilance until communications were complete and continued thereafter to maintain a check on all his personnel in regard to their duties and personal safety. His actions contributed considerably to the accomplishment of the mission of the * Infantry. The courage and loyalty displayed by Captain DAVIS is commendable and reflects good credit upon the armed services. Captain DAVIS entered military service from Moreland, Georgia.

NUMBER 4)

I. TO THE OFFICERS AND MEN OF THE FIGHTING THREE FIFTIETH: It is my privilege and pleasure to commend the officers and men of this Regiment, both as a group and individually, on their first encounter with the enemy - a task which not one of us faced without some anxiety. The job assigned to us has been accomplished with commendable success - the result of painstaking and often painful training; the result of sympathetic leadership on the part of the commissioned and non-commissioned officers and the competent and trustful collaboration on the part of the men.

It has been our purpose and hope to weld this Regiment into a fighting TEAM. Our first encounter with the enemy assures us that our purpose has been fulfilled and that our hope and trust has been verified. "We have only begun to fight." Future encounters with the enemy will demand the best that is in us, even the heroic, and I feel certain that every officer and man in this Regiment will unflinchingly measure up to whatever duty demands.

Naturally, the thought of our wounded and dead comrades fills us with sorrow and we bow our heads in prayer for their welfare. May their noble sacrifice and heroic example spur us on to fight manfully for the cause so dear to our hearts.

CHARLES P. LYNCH

I - AWARD OF COMBAT INFANTRYMAN BADGE (OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCE)

Under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-55, and Paragraph 5, War Department Circular 269, dated 17 October 1943; the following named officers are awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge, and are commended for their outstanding performance in action as described below:

JAMES F. RITTS, Captain, 0267152, Infantry for exceptional service in the employment of the heavy weapons company from [redacted] 1944 to [redacted] 1944 near [redacted], Italy. Capt. JAMES F RITTS was charged with planning and execution of the fire missions of his company. These plans were prepared and carried out in such a way to reflect credit on himself and organization His machine guns delivered harassing fire to cause enemy to stop activity whereas before they had moved around more or less freely. Officer's home town, Elizabethton, Tennessee.

JOHN S. FAY, 1st Lieutenant, 0426560, Infantry for exceptional and meritorious service near [redacted], Italy from [redacted] 1944 to [redacted] 1944 in the organization and planning of the patrol activities of his battalion. Lt. JOHN S. FAY established a complete and thorough O.P. system. Lt. FAY'S efficient performance of duty contributed considerably to the accomplishment of the mission assigned his battalion. Officer's home town, Franklin, Pennsylvania.

WALTER L. MILLER, 2nd Lieutenant, 0517367, Infantry for exceptional service as leader of a three man patrol near [redacted], Italy, on [redacted] 1944. He took the patrol to within 50 yards of an enemy position and was in the process of sketching the position when fired upon by an enemy machine gun, machine pistol and several rifles. Lt. MILLER, together with his men, returned their fire and were able to withdraw under its cover. The patrol was later forced to return to our lines by enemy fire from light mortar. Lt. MILLER then assisted in the placing of effective 81mm mortar fire on the enemy position he had just returned from. Lt. MILLER'S skillful conduct in the face of enemy fire resulted in the definite location of enemy position heretofore unknown. Officer's home town: Sioux City, Iowa.

ROY E. GRAY, 2nd Lieutenant, 0531586, Infantry for exceptional service in the employment of 81mm mortar platoon from [redacted] 1944 to [redacted] 1944 near [redacted], Italy. Lt. GRAY'S mortar platoon fired approximately 5,000 rounds in 25 days of combat. During this period his mortar platoon covered the entire battalion front and fired many concentrations that would normally have been called for from the artillery. Officer's home town: Cincinnati, Ohio.

III - CITATIONS

Under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-55, the following named individuals are commended for their outstanding performance in the action described below:

First Lieutenant FILMORE (NMI) JAFFE, 01294482, Company "K", * Infantry, * Infantry Division, for the performance of meritorious duty. On * 1944, near * Italy, First Lieutenant FILMORE (NMI) JAFFE left his company area about 1300 hours leading a daylight reconnaissance patrol into enemy territory. Approaching his objective, he observed a hole leading into the basement of the house. Placing his patrol in advantageous positions to cover him, First Lieutenant JAFFE approached the house and ordered the enemy to come out. Two German soldiers came out of the house with their hands up but attempted to escape. First Lieutenant JAFFE'S accurate carbine fire wounded them both and they were evacuated to friendly lines. First Lieutenant JAFFE'S coolness and courage under fire was an inspiration to the men of his patrol and reflects credit upon himself and the service.

1ST LT. LOREN F. BRYSON	01301251	Home - Peoria, Illinois
2ND LT. FRANK J. MATTEY	01318316	" - Zanesville, Ohio
T/Sgt. Neal E. Sumner	34374001	" - Jackson, Tenn.
Sgt. Walter E. Doncon Jr.	33254270	" - Wyndman, Pa.
Cpl. John T. Russell	34374157	" - Cordova, Tenn.

Sergeant Walter E. Doncon Jr., 33254270, Company "H", * Infantry, on * 1944, near * Italy, discovered five Germans crawling to a house nearby. He immediately notified 1st Lt. LOREN F. BRYSON, 01301251, Company "H", * Infantry, who informed the C.P. of what had taken place. The C.P. in turn notified the mortar section, under the command of 2nd Lt. FRANK J. MATTEY, 01318316, Company "H", * Infantry, who immediately placed fire down in the vicinity of the house to which the enemy soldiers were crawling. The Germans were pinned to their position through rifle fire which was laid down by T/Sgt. Neal E. Sumner, and Corporal John T. Russell. These soldiers were located on the second story of the C.P. Two of the Germans, one in the doorway of the house and the other in a nearby haystack, were known to have been hit. Despite the fact that visibility became poor, mortars continued firing at the designated target. The aforementioned soldiers have displayed alertness, calmness, and courage through their actions, and have demonstrated high qualities of leadership.

G. O. No. 10, Hqs. 350th Infantry, 3 May 1944, cont'd.

Sgt. Matthew H. Teague	31115717	Hqrs - Fairfield, Vermont
T/5 Louis F. Berrette	31149022	" - Providence, Rhode Island
Pfc Frank T. Miller	32376884	" - Endicott, New York
Pvt Orvil L. Shelton	34162330	" - Trinity, Alabama

From * 1944 to * 1944, at * Italy, the above named enlisted men, members of the * Battalion, * Infantry, were stationed in the forward C.P. of the battalion. As wiremen, their duties were on many occasions arduous and dangerous. Yet, with disregard for their personal safety, these men constantly repaired breaks and maintained communications at all hours. Although frequently exposed to enemy fire, these enlisted men operated efficiently and reflected credit upon themselves and the service.

Under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, the following named men are awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge for their outstanding conduct in the action indicated below:

Private First Class Pasquale A. Verro, [illegible], Company [illegible], [illegible] Infantry, for the performance of unusually dangerous duty during combat operations in the vicinity of Anzio, Italy, February 16, 1944. Private Verro, acting as a wire [illegible] was sent to repair a broken wire line in an enemy ambush attack. Under direct observation of the enemy and subjected to intense fire from machine guns, rifles and artillery of the enemy, Private Verro repaired the broken wire line and returned to his company with the information.

Private First Class Pasquale A. Verro, [illegible], Company [illegible], for the performance of outstanding duty. This date, in the vicinity of Anzio, Italy, 16 February 1944, volunteered to carry an urgent message from the battalion [illegible] to the Company Command Post. Although it was during daylight hours and he knew he would be under enemy fire and observation, he did not hesitate. Leaving cover he ran through mud and shell fire. Pfc Verro reached his objective successfully and returned. His attention to duty reflects credit upon himself.
