DEPARTING MESSAGE

I am upon the eve of departing for a new assignment in the Far East.

To you, the military personnel and the civilian employees of the Fifth Army Area, I desire to express my sincere appreciation for a job well done. That the myriad problems of the past two and more years since my assumption of command have been effectively solved and that a smoothly efficient team has eventuated, I owe entirely to your untiring efforts and wholehearted support.

For my successor, I bespeak the same loyal and efficient support that you have given in such abundance to me.

I bid you goodbye and wish for all of you continued health, success and happiness.
